

Note: This is suggested text for outreach via email and social media. Edit as you see fit.

Suggested Subject: Family dispute help your clients

Suggested Email Text:

What happens to divorcing couples in the middle of a pandemic?

Where can parents go for help with custody disputes when the courts are closed?

Families are in crisis, and they don't know where to turn.

Collaborative Practice is an internationally-recognized method created to help divorcing couples, and parents manage divorce and child custody matters peacefully without the courts.

On May 27th at 10:00a (PDT), the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals is hosting a FREE information session about Collaborative Practice and its benefits.

Learn new ways to get your clients the help they need and expand your local referral network.

Local civic, social, business, religious, and community groups, as well as professional associations, are invited.

As a service provider, you see firsthand how COVID-19 is devastating our community. Let's work together to provide solutions.

Seats are limited. Register now.

<https://www.collaborativepractice.com/civcrm/event/register?reset=1&id=83>

Sincerely,

[insert name]

[insert profession] and Collaborative Practice Provider

Suggested Social Media Captions:

- What happens to divorcing couples in the middle of a pandemic?

Join a FREE informational session on May 27th at 10:00a (PDT) to learn about local options to get your clients the help they need with dignity and respect.

- Divorce does not have to mean dysfunction even during a pandemic.

Collaborative Practice helps families resolve conflict peacefully without the courts. Learn how Collaborative Practice can work for your clients, friends, and family at 10:00a (PDT) on May 27th.

Important Links:

Use this registration link in your social media posts and emails.

<https://www.collaborativepractice.com/civicrm/event/register?reset=1&id=83>

Download the graphic by clicking the link and right-clicking on the image to save it to your computer. <https://www.collaborativepractice.com/file/1991>