

AFTER FORUM TRAININGS

MONTHLY WEBINAR SERIES

Are We Listening? What Collaborative Clients Say They Want: Compelling Learnings from Divorce Clients | led by the IACP Research Committee

PART 1 | Tuesday, November 19, 2019 1:00pm PDT | Trainers: Linda Wray, Louise Livesay-Al, and Tonda Mattie

PART 2 | TBA late January 2020 | Trainers: Linda Wray, Deb Clemmensen, and Nancy Williger

Do we, as experts in process, really understand what it is about process that is so important to clients? This webinar will delve into unexplored nuances about process that seemingly impacts our clients.

INTERMEDIATE/ADVANCED ONLINE TRAINING

BEYOND THE BASICS: Key Distinctions and Skills for Helping Divorcing Couples Reach Mutually Acceptable Agreements | led by J. Mark Weiss

4 PART WEBINAR SERIES | Thursdays January 9, 16, 23, & 30, 2020 9:30-11:45am PST

This course consists of four webinars to help build understanding and skills in negotiation and conflict resolution facilitation for intermediate Collaborative professionals. Each weekly seminar focuses on an important aspect of work in the Collaborative process. (Limited seats available)

IN-PERSON SERIES TRAINING IN PARTNERSHIP WITH FORREST "WOODY" MOSTEN

Building a Successful Collaborative Practice | led by Woody Mosten, Don Blythe, Gary Dierenfeld, and Ron Ousky

SAN DIEGO | Friday, February 7 & Saturday, February 8, 2020

This two-day workshop provides a practical model for implementing client-centered collaborative strategies into your profession. Learn new ways to represent clients well while staying out of court and explore the personal and ethical dimensions of collaborative problem solving.

TRAINERS TRAINING | led by Woody Mosten, Gary Dierenfeld, and Kathleen Zumpano

SAN DIEGO | Friday, May 22 & Saturday, May 23, 2020

Take this groundbreaking course to become a professional trainer and add training to your career!

Pre-requisite required: "Building a Successful Collaborative Practice"

IACP member discounts are available.

For information about the above options, as well as IACP's ongoing Introductory Interdisciplinary Collaborative Practice Training options visit www.collaborativepractice.com/iacp-events.