

GLOBAL PARTNERS

ORGANIZATIONAL MEMBERSHIP

Requirements

- Available to nonprofits/NGOs and practice groups that support IACP's mission
- Commitment to work together with other Global Partners to promote the availability of CP around the globe
- Commitment to creating alliances and maintaining a strong reciprocal working relationship with IACP
- Mutual agreement to post each other's logo and hotlink on organization's website, and to distribute each other's conference and meeting announcements through regular channels
- Share strategies, ideas, and resources with developing and established Collaborative communities

*All prices are quoted in US Dollars.

$800/organization

Benefits

- Organization is listed with other Global Partners on IACP's website and printed materials
- Logo/link to Global Partner's website on IACP's site (reciprocal linkage)
- Distribution of Global Partner conference announcements through IACP (reciprocal announcements)
- Special Gathering at Forum for Global Partner representatives with IACP President and ED
- Invitation to quarterly Global Partner planning conference calls with IACP President and ED
- Organization is permitted use of "C" mark and other IACP promotional materials Organization dues include individual membership for one Global Partner representative, and $100 discount off Member rates to Forum and Institute for one representative at each meeting