Higher Education Task Force

AUTHORIZATION AND RELEASE

FOR THE SHARING AND USE OF EDUCATIONAL MATERIAL RELATED TO THE TEACHING OF COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE IN INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION

I understand that the Higher Education Task Force of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals (“IACP”) is collecting information and documentation to inform the Collaborative Community on where and how Collaborative Practice (Law / Divorce / Civil) is being taught at the graduate level in law, financial, and/or mental health programs around the world and, to the extent possible, to collect the materials being used in those efforts. I further understand that the intent of IACP is to use such materials, in whole or in part, and/or in connection with other materials, to create a uniform IACP curriculum with course materials for use by educational institutions around the world to instruct on Collaborative Practice . The purpose of this effort is to reduce institutional and other barriers that may exist that prevent the teaching of Collaborative Practice, including in interdisciplinary programs.

This document provides my authorization regarding use of the materials I provide, and expresses any limitations regarding use of those materials. By signing this document, I understand that the materials I provide will be used for nonprofit and/or educational purposes only. I expressly waive the right to compensation arising from or related to the use of the materials I am providing, including under any applicable Copyright Law, and specifically 17 U.S.C. 101 et. seq. or as a “joint work” as defined in 176 U.S.C. 101(20).

I authorize IACP and the IACP Education Task Force as follows (check all that apply):
