

Bio – Terri McDougall, PFP, CFDS-AA

Terri has a passion for working with clients in transition and takes a personal interest in ensuring clients maintain respectful relationships in the best interests of their family. Her goal is to assist couples in getting through a difficult and emotional time, efficiently and productively, while bringing some sensibility and perspective to the process. Terri helps her clients focus and understand their situation so they can navigate through the financial uncertainty of a separation.

After a 25+ year career in Wealth Management, Terri has exclusively dealt with Matrimonial matters for the past 7 ½ years, finding immense gratification in helping clients come to agreements that are unique and meaningful for them.

Terri holds the Chartered Financial Divorce Specialist, Advanced Accredited (CFDS-AA) designation, is a Personal Financial Planner (PFP) and Financial Management Advisor (FMA) and holds a Certificate in Retirement Strategy. Terri maintains memberships with several collaborative groups to offer services throughout Ontario, including Collaborative Practice Toronto.

Bio – Caroline Felstiner, MSW, RSW, AccFM

Caroline Felstiner is a family and child protection mediator, social worker, and collaborative family professional. Caroline has worked with families in a variety of capacities including child protection work, Roots of Empathy instructor and Voice of the Child Practitioner. Since 2011, Caroline has been an accredited family mediator and since 2014, a trained collaborative family professional. For 6 years Caroline has coached novice mediators in conflict resolution skills, assessing for power imbalances and domestic violence risk as well as crafting parenting plans.

Caroline's goal is to support families navigating through a separation with a calm, problem-solving focus. Children's well-being is at the forefront of all of Caroline's work and she uses her skills and knowledge to support parents in identifying, articulating, and nurturing their children's needs. Over the past dozen years Caroline has had the opportunity to work with families of different faiths, cultures, and structures, ensuring that each family's identity and values are preserved during and after separation.

Caroline is a registered social worker in Ontario, is a member of OAFM and of Collaborative Divorce Toronto.

Bio Cori Kalinowski JD, BComm, ACP (OACP), AccFM (OAFM)

For 26 years Cori Kalinowski has practiced as a family lawyer in Toronto, Ontario. For the last 20 years she has used the Collaborative Process and Mediation to help clients negotiate the terms of their separation agreements as well as helping other clients who are planning their lives by negotiating the terms of Cohabitation Agreements and Marriage Contracts. Cori has been designated as an Advanced Collaborative Practitioner by the Ontario Association of Collaborative Practitioners and is accredited as a mediator by the Ontario Association of Family Mediators. Since 2004, Cori has been actively involved in various capacities with her local practice group, Collaborative Divorce Toronto, including, at one point, as its Chair. Cori has trained lawyers in Canada, France, and Italy in Collaborative Practice. She works with families who have high net worth, high income, complex business and trust interests as well as those with more modest financial resources.

